FOR BRONX ROAD

Big Delegations Appear at the Hearing Before Aldermanlo Rallroad Committee in Favor of the Port Chester Line.

INSIST THAT IT SHALL EXTEND TO THE HARLEM.

The Westchester and Boston Project Is Declared to Be in the Interest of the New Haven Railroad.

The main hall and the galleries of The Aldermanic Chamber were filled today by residents of the Bronx and advocates of the Port Chester Railroad Company-which wants to build a road in the Bronx—to attend the adjourned Today's highest, lowest and closing price hearing before the Railroad Commit- and net changes from yesterday's closin

Stress on the failure of the Board of Estimate to require that the Westchester and Boston road run its line directly to the Harlem River, instead of Stopping at the Southern Boulevard.

Want to Build Complete Line.

"We don't propose to curtail one foot of our road in the Bronx, but to build a road from the Connecticut line to the Harlem River," said Mr. Smith.

"John B. McDonald, 'the Wizard of the

"John B. McDonald, 'the Wizard of the Subway,' is ready to go asked and build the Port Chester road as soon as the city grants its permit."

President William F. King, of the Merchants' Association, informed the committee that the Merchants' Association along the committee that the Merchants' Association along the Port Chester Railroad built.

Thomas A. McKennell, a member of the Board of Aldermen of Mount Vernon, said that while he did not presume in addressing the committee to represent the city of Mount Vernon, he knew that the building of the Port Chester road meant the establishment of great business interests in Mount Vernon as well as the Bronx.

John P. Cohalan, representing a Bronx property-owners' association, speaking in behalf of the Westchester Railroad, said: "We in the Bronx are not all in favor of the Port Chester, because we believe that the Port Chester road is being speculated with by Mr. Gotshall, its President, and those interested with him."

Mr. Cohalan defended Dick & Robinson, bankers, who are financiering the Westchester road, saying that their financial rating was "A No.1."

More Opposition to Port Chester.

T. C. Press, of the Chester District.

More Opposition to Port Chester. T. C. Press, of the Chester District Alliance, also speaking in opposition to the Port Chester Road, said that the association he represented was unani-mously in favor of the Westchester line.

William A. Cokeley. President of the Chester District Alliance, also spoke for the Westchester road.

Upon the receipt of a letter from former Assistant District - Attorney James W. Osborne, requesting an adjournment until he could be heard in opposition to the Port Chester application, the committee adjourned the ACT ON PORT CHESTER ROAD NEXT TUESDAY.

The Board of Aldermen will next Tuesday consider the application of the New York, Westchester and Boston Railroad for a franchise. To-day the board re ceived formal notification that the Board of Estimate and Apportionment had passed favorably on the conditions of the franchise. The board thereupon designated next Tuesday for the special consideration of the franchise.

A communication was received from President Haffen, of the Bronx, asking the board not to act hastily. The communication was placed on file.

WESTERVELT QUITS STREET.

Broker Who Vanished Is Back and Sells Exchange Seat.

A. Fountain Westervelt, of Hackensack, N. J., the stock broker who mysteriously disappeared from his home on June 11, the eve of his wedding to Miss Florence W. Olmstead, to-day vis-ited the Wall street district and authorized the sale of his seat upon the Consolidated Stock Exchange, which will bring him between $1,200 and $1,500. To his friends Westervelt admitted that he had been in Regina, Northwest Territory, Can., and that he had returned last Friday to the home of his sister, Mrs. H. L .Bartow, in Hackensack.
Miss Olmstead is now at Atlantic City recovering from the shock which she suffered at the sudden departure of her intended husband.

WHEAT MARKET.

Wheat opened lower to-day, with trading dull. The chief feature seemed to be a set of bearish cables. Corn started quiet, about steady.

New York's opening prices were: July wheat, 89 3-8; September, 85; December, 84 7.8 bid.
